

Hosting an international student allows you to...

- introduce your family to a different country.
- provide an authentic American experience for a student.
- embrace a different culture.
- welcome a new family member and lifelong friend.

Know someone else who would make a great host?

Refer them to gphomestay, and earn a $300 referral bonus once the applicant is approved!

STEP 1
Spread the word to friends, neighbors and family.

STEP 2
Encourage potential hosts to apply online.

STEP 3
Receive $300 from gphomestay.

Gphomestay is looking for qualified hosts in your community. Tell your friends, neighbors and family members about the amazing opportunity to host an international student studying in the U.S. Send potential host families to gphomestay.com to complete an online application. Make sure they include your contact information on the application. Once the referred host family is approved to host an international student, we'll mail you $300. Every time a referred host family is approved, you'll receive an additional referral bonus.

300+ residential programs across the U.S.

Host families must live within 30 minutes driving from a gphomestay partner school.
